

Welcome to Your "Golf Paradise"

Grip it, and rip it!

Do you dream about 250 yard drives that split the fairway? You can swing out your dream with this once-in-a-lifetime, all-inclusive "Tin Cup" vacation as a guest of Nabisco.

Imagine yourself teeing it up on two nationally renowned PGA courses — courses that make a hook or slice look good. You will be hitting the links and talking the game with sports legends like Carlton Fisk and Earl Monroe. They, among others, will serve as your hosts for this bogey-free experience. Come to Tucson, Arizona, home of the Loews Ventana Canyon Resort, and join in for five days of golf heaven on Wednesday, October 8 through Sunday, October 12, 1997.

Highlights include dinner at the nationally famous Ventana Room, golf clinics and tournaments on the two Tom Fazio designed golf courses in the resort, and a tour of Biosphere 2.

Accommodations will be provided by the incredible Loews Ventana Canyon Resort, located on a plateau high above the city of Tucson.

No mulligans are needed on this once-in-a-lifetime experience!
